

Literacy

As readers, we will:

- Study various Greek myths and non-fiction text to allow us explore our topic.
- Engage with a novel Who Let the Gods Out by Maz Evans, which takes us on amazing adventures with Ancient Greek gods and goddesses.

As writers, we will:

- Practise spelling and grammar every day.
- Explore and write some poetry.
- Get inspired by Greek myths to write a myth of our own.

History

As historians, we will:

- Learn how the Ancient Greeks affected future civilisations, exploring which Ancient Greek inventions and developments are still around.
- Use a variety of resources to research what life was like in Ancient Greece.
- Learn how the Olympic games started and how they

Numeracy

As mathematicians, we will continue to study:

- Fractions, decimals and percentages.

Geography

As geographers, we will:

- Explore the geography of Europe, including capital cities, important landmarks and mountain ranges.
- Examine the physical and humane geography of Greece.
- Focus on mapwork, including 4 – figure co-ordinates and 8 compass points.

French

As international speakers, we will:

- Learn how to order food and shop in French.
- Re-call different fruits and vegetables.

Art and DT

As designers, we will:

- Study primary resources from Ancient Greece with focus on clothing.
- Design, produce and evaluate a garment in Ancient Greek style.

ANCIENT GREEKS

YEAR 5

Spring 2

In PSHRE we will:

- Explore our strengths and weaknesses.
- Discuss the various skills needed for different jobs.

Science

As scientists, we will:

- Explore reversible and irreversible changes in materials.
- Use our knowledge of solids, liquids and gases to decide how mixtures can be separated.
- Distinguish between dissolving and melting.
- Explore the rate that the change can happen to materials.
- Expand our scientific vocabulary.

Computing

As computer users, we will:

- Begin to study how videos are made.
- Learn about different types of shots we can take.
- Plan, record and edit our own videos.

RE

As theologians, we will:

- Focus on Easter and the concept of salvation.

Music

As musicians, we will continue to explore and play musical instruments.

PE

As athletes, we will:

- Improve our map reading and orienteering skills.
- Practise our ball skills used in various sports.